

Disaster Prevention Training Course for Language Volunteers

Have fun learning about disaster prevention with people from across the world

Let's Global Talk!

2009.2.22 [SUN]

Sendai International Center, 2nd Floor, Sakura Room

12:30-16:00

Sendai International Relations Association will be taking applications from local and foreign citizens who want to learn more about disaster prevention. Come and have fun learning about disaster prevention through games and various talks!

 Talks from guests and foreign citizens 14:00-15:00

There will be interesting talks from our guests as well as fun activities!

[Guests]

Foreign citizens living in Sendai

[Coordinator]

Ms. Keiko Itabashi

Date fms "Sunday Morning Wave" DJ

The multilingual disaster information program "Global Talk" is broadcasted on the "Sunday Morning Wave" show.

[Commentator]

Mr. Fumihiko Imamura

Professor of Tohoku University's Disaster Control Research Center / Date FMs "Sunday Morning Wave" DJ

Mr. Chihiro Ota

Earthquake Disaster Prevention Adviser of Sendai City

 Experience the "Gurara," a mobile earthquake simulator 12:00-13:30

*If it rains the earthquake simulator will be discontinued.

 Disaster Prevention Exhibition "Experience Corner" 12:30-16:00

Organizer: Sendai International Relations Association, Sendai City
Cooperation: Date fm

Participants: Anyone who would like to learn more about disaster prevention

Limited to 100 people (for foreign citizens who are worried about their Japanese language ability, volunteers will be available to assist)

Applications: Sendai International Relations Association (Mr. Kikuchi)

Tel : 022-265-2480 / Email : plan2@sira.or.jp

Entry Free !